Maggie Pinnt Honored as a Finalist at 2022 BizTimes Nonprofit Excellence Award

Pepper's business development manager honored for going beyond giving back.

MILWAUKEE, WI – November 04, 2022 BizTimes Media LLC's Nonprofit Excellence Awards this morning recognized Maggie Pinnt, Pepper's Business Development Manager in Wisconsin, as a finalist their Next Generation Leadership award winner. The award recognizes for-profit executives under 40 who demonstrate leadership and significant contributions to nonprofit organizations through active leadership.

The awards program shines a light on the community impact of southeastern Wisconsin nonprofits. The program also salutes the work of for-profit organizations, executives and professionals who donate their time, talent and treasure to community causes.

Dozens of nominations were submitted for the program this year, and 30 finalists were named in 9 different categories. One winner in each category was announced. As a finalist, Maggie was honored for her service as a board advisor for GPS Education Partners, her contributions to the veteran advisory committees of the War Memorial Center, fundraising efforts for the Center of Veterans Issues, and as a volunteer with Junior Achievement of Wisconsin, among many others.

In addition to the awards themselves, the Nonprofit Excellence Awards program included a Q&A with Jim Kacmarcik, chairman and chief executive officer of Kacmarcik Enterprises, and Gretchen Jameson, group president for human performance and social impact at Kacmarcik Enterprises, discussing their organization's approach to giving back and the vision for the new Kacmarcik Center for Human Performance.

A complete list of finalists and their designated categories can be found at www.biztimes.com/npawards.
