Pepper Construction Adds Todd Robertson as Director of Business Development

Dublin, OH – January 12, 2017 Ohio-based Pepper Construction is proud to announce that Todd Robertson has joined their team, leading business development efforts for the company.

Todd brings to the position more than 15 years of construction experience, having led strategic sales efforts in the commercial flooring industry for the past 10 years. Through his experiences, Todd has developed an ability to understand the unique needs of each client and guide project teams to focusing on what matters most. Todd holds a bachelor's degree in English literature from The Ohio State University.

“We are thrilled to have Todd join our team,” said Paul Francois, President of Pepper Ohio, “particularly due to his experience and relationships within the industry which will allow us to better serve both existing and new customers.”

Pepper Construction is on the forefront of new markets and methods, leading the industry in virtual technologies, lean and sustainable construction. Among the firm's current and recent projects are IKEA Columbus, OCLC Headquarters Renovation in Dublin, Ohio, Northern Kentucky University's Recreation Center Addition and Renovation, and CDK Global's Center for Excellence in Norwood, Ohio.

Pepper Ohio is part of Pepper Construction Group, which serves clients across the country with comprehensive teams in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois working in markets such as workplace, manufacturing and light industrial, retail, healthcare, education, data centers, entertainment, and hospitality among others.
